

Ausra Simoniukstyte VK Vilniaus Kolegija / University of Applied Sciences, Lithuania.

Ausra Simoniukstyte is a specialist on Roma situation in Lithuania, including situation of Roma education. After receiving her MA in Social Anthropology at Lund University in Sweden, she has been continuously involved in different research projects, resulting in publications on such topics as modern Lithuanian identity construction, WW2 and post-war narratives in Roma life stories, also on different aspects of intercultural and inclusive education.