

Celine De Vos

VIVES University College, Belgium

Celine De Vos is a Lecturer in Teacher Training Education at the VIVES campus Tielt, where she has been employed for 8 years. She mainly teaches in the areas of pedagogy, didactics and social skills & communication. Her main subject is didactics in Early Childhood Education.

Celine has a Master's Degree in Educational Sciences.

She currently teaches in the Bachelor Early Childhood Education and Bachelor Primary Education and coaches students during their on-the-job-training. She is involved in international projects, e.g. she coaches students in Early Childhood Education in gaining international experiences in several European countries.