

Staff Profile

Daiva Burkauskiene VK Vilniaus Kolegija / University of Applied Sciences, Lithuania.

Children with special educational needs and their education (specifically, education of hearing impaired children) is a key topic of her work. For more than 20 years she has been involved in this area, development and participation in the projects, development of post legal acts in the country, development of teaching materials. She's been an expert in a number of international and national projects.